Fr Stan writes ...

The new Parish Pastoral Council met on Tuesday for the first time. The number and range of topics discussed clearly demonstrates the vibrancy of our parish. The interest and enthusiasm shown was very encouraging. 2019 certainly promises to be a very busy year for our parish and school.

You are reminded that you can approach any member of council if you have a suggestion or would like something raised at their next meeting. Councillors are listed on the noticeboard.

As Lent is just around the corner, I would like to ask you to note in your diaries the weekend of 9/10 March, the first weekend in Lent, as Fr Peter Prusakiewicz CSMA will be leading a retreat in our parish. The retreat will have morning and afternoon sessions on the Saturday as well as an afternoon session on the Sunday. Fr Peter will also be the homilist at all the Masses on that weekend.

A complete schedule will be available next weekend.

This is a great opportunity for faith formation and spiritual growth, particularly during the Lenten Season. I encourage you not to miss this chance.
